Re: National Security Agency Telecommunications Records Litigation
MDL Docket No. 06-1791 VRW

Dear Chief Judge Walker:

We write concerning Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc. v. Bush, which the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (JPML) transferred to you from the United States District Court for the District of Oregon as a tag-along action with the National Security Agency Telecommunications Records Litigation by order dated December 15, 2006.

As we explained in our letter to you dated November 7, 2006, which describes the Al-Haramain litigation, there are two pending motions and a pending discovery conference in Al-Haramain, all of which Oregon district court Judge Garr M. King deferred pending the JPML's decision on transfer:

- A fully-briefed motion by defendants seeks a stay of all further district court proceedings pending the Ninth Circuit's decision on the defendants' interlocutory appeal of Judge King's ruling of September 7, 2006 on defendants' invocation of the state secrets privilege. (On December 21, 2006, the Ninth Circuit granted defendants' petition for interlocutory appeal.) Oral argument on defendants' stay motion has not yet been heard.
- A motion by plaintiffs seeks partial summary judgment of liability or, alternatively, partial summary adjudication of specific issues. Defendants have not yet filed their opposition to this motion.

- Judge King's ruling of September 7, 2006 prescribes the scheduling of a discovery conference to address several pending discovery issues.

At the close of the December 21, 2006 hearing before you in the National Security Agency Telecommunications Records Litigation, one of the undersigned attorneys for the Al-Haramain plaintiffs, Jon B. Eisenberg, informed you of the pending motions and discovery conference in the Al-Haramain litigation and advised you that plaintiffs' and defendants' counsel would be conferring with regard to post-transfer proceedings. You instructed Mr. Eisenberg to advise you by letter of the outcome of that conference. That is the purpose of this letter.

By email to defense attorneys Anthony Coppolino, Andrew Tannenbaum and Andrea Gacki dated December 27, 2006, Mr. Eisenberg proposed the following:

- At the hearing scheduled for February 9, 2007 for oral argument on the motion for a stay of the telecommunications records litigation during the pendency of the interlocutory appeal in Hepting, the court shall also hear oral argument on defendants' fully-briefed motion for a stay of the Al-Haramain litigation during the pendency of the interlocutory appeal Al-Haramain.
- On plaintiffs' pending motion for partial summary judgment or adjudication, defendants' opposition shall be due January 22, 2007, plaintiffs' reply shall be due January 29, 2007, and at the hearing scheduled for February 9, 2007 the court shall schedule a subsequent date for a hearing on the motion.
- At the hearing scheduled for February 9, 2007, the court shall schedule a date for the discovery conference previously ordered by Judge King.

On January 4, 2007, defense counsel and Mr. Eisenberg conferred by telephone regarding these proposals. Defense counsel stated that they agree to the proposal for the court to hear oral argument on the stay motion on February 9, 2007, but that they oppose any further proceedings on the motion for partial summary judgment or adjudication, as well as the scheduling of a discovery conference, until the court rules on the stay motion.

During this telephone conference, counsel also discussed the need for a transfer of certain documents filed under seal in this case from a Sensitive Compartmented

Information Facility (SCIF) in Portland to one in San Francisco where you can have ready access to these documents. Defense counsel said they are working on arranging the logistics of the document transfer and agreed to advise you of the status of the pending document transfer at the time of the February 9, 2007 hearing.

We therefore respectfully request that the following be added to the court's agenda for the hearing of February 9, 2007:

- Oral argument in Al-Haramain on the defendants' fully-briefed motion for a stay during the pendency of their interlocutory appeal in Al-Haramain.
- Determination of a schedule for the completion of briefing and oral argument on the Al-Haramain plaintiffs' pending motion for partial summary judgment or adjudication.
- Scheduling of a date for the discovery conference previously ordered by Judge King in Al-Haramain.
- A status report by defense counsel on their arrangements for transfer of the sealed documents in Al-Haramain to a SCIF in San Francisco.

Respectfully submitted,
